off Cape Kaliakra, a warship was observed heading in a   50X1-HUM southeasterly direction. This ship could not definitely be distinguished as being a cruiser.

3.   The port was completely deserted and informant's ship was the only one present.
Shipments of iron rods and bars (verzella), cases of glass, and lumber were   50X1-HUM piled on the docks. Three motor torpedo boats were berthed at the naval pier, facing the Navy building. The net booms at the harbor entrance had been removed. No military activity was observed other than a flight of six jet fighters overhead. These planes had straight rather than delta wings.
